THE PEDLAR'S SONG.

Will you buy any tape,
Or lace for your cape,
My dainty duck, my dear-a;
Any silk, any thread,
Any toys for your head,
Of the newest & finest wear-a?
Come to the pedlar;
Money's a medlar,
That doth utter all men's ware-a.

Little Woman

There was a little woman,
As I have heard tell.

Going to Market.

She went to market,
Her Eggs for to sell.

10-000000 10-000000
10-000000 10-000000

Market.

She went to market,
All on a market day.

Napping.

And she fell asleep,
On the King's highway.

The author of the above is a very good friend of the author of this book.

Pedlar.

By came a pedlar,
His name it was Stout -
And he cut her petticoats

Slyboots.

He cut her petticoats
Up to her knees;
Which made the little woman

Awaking.

When this little woman
Began to awake .

cold.

She began to shiver,
And she began to shake.

the person in the center of the
and the person in the center of the person in the center of the
the person in the center of the

Fright.

She began to shake,
And she began to cry,
Goodness's mercy on me,
Sure this is none of I!

Little Dog.

If I be I;
As I do hope I be,
I have a little dog at home,
And he knows me.

Dog on Watch.

If I be I,
He'll wag his little tail;
But if I be not I,
He'll bark and wail.

Coming home

When this little woman
Came home in the dark.

When the first
of the year 1630

Barking

Up starts the little dog,
And began to bark.

Horror

He began to bark,
And she began to cry,
Goodness's mercy on me,
There I said twas none of I!
